what does modern british and irish literature have to do with french impressionist painting and what does henry james have to do with the legal dispute between john ruskin and j m w whistler what links walter pater with conrad s portrait of a genocidal maniac in heart of darkness or george moore with irish nationalism virginia woolf with modern distraction and ford madox ford with the great depression adam parkes argues that we must answer such questions if we are to appreciate the full impact of impressionist aesthetics on modern british and irish writers complicating previous accounts of the influence of painting and philosophy on literary impressionism a sense of shock highlights the role of politics uncovering new and deeper linkages in the hands of such practitioners as conrad ford james moore pater and woolf literary impressionism was shaped by its engagement with important social issues and political events that defined the modern age as parkes demonstrates the formal and stylistic practices that distinguish impressionist writing were the result of dynamic and often provocative interactions between aesthetic and historical factors parkes ultimately suggests that it was through this incendiary combination of aesthetics and history that impressionist writing forced significant change on the literary culture of its time a sense of shock will appeal to students and scholars of nineteenth and twentieth century literature as well as the growing readership for books that explore problems of literary history and interdisciplinarity salamensky investigates oscar wilde his contemporaries and the public frenzy over his work and life as illustrating the crucial importance of performance in the construction of the modern and our own postmodern lives a longstanding successful and frequently controversial career spanning more than four decades establishes david bowie as charged with contemporary cultural relevance that david bowie has influenced many lives is undeniable to his fans he requisitions and challenges his audiences through frequently indirect lyrics and images to critically question sanity identity and essentially what it means to be us and why we are here enchanting david bowie explores david bowie as an anti temporal figure and argues that we need to understand him across the many media platforms and art spaces he intersects with including theatre film television the web exhibition installation music lyrics video and fashion this exciting collection is organized according to the key themes of space time body and memory themes that literally and metaphorically address the key questions and intensities of his output this collection of new essays devoted to oscar wilde s classic novel presents new critical work by prominent scholars that deal with numerous aspects of the famed novel essays range from early literary influences on the novel and its controversial early reception to its afterlife in literature film dance photography theatre and television in addition to considering dorian gray as an iconic queer work of fiction that daringly challenged late victorian literary practices the volume explores wilde s novel in terms of the history of the european novel and the book s innovations as a gothic supernatural work that defied the conventions of nineteenth century realism along with striking illustrations of the novel since its publication including images from popular adaptations the volume includes never before translated early reviews of the novel in the european press along with an unpublished parody of wilde s novel in the form of an examination paper by the english writer max beerbohm edited by richard kaye this volume offers multiple and fascinating perspectives on oscar wilde s classic in fourteen highly readable essays wilde nowreads oscar wilde through our now through a contemporary sensibility and approach in which literature and popular culture interrogate and are interrogated by critical concepts and categories such as performance celebrity intermediality and consumerism this volume exceeds the shape and meaning of a critical study to turn into a drama of five different acts moments in wilde s life and work his early performances in dublin london and oxford the 1882 american tour his successful season of the first half of the 1890s his prison years and finally his glorious resurrection in contemporary pop culture most importantly wilde now approaches these moments through contemporary rewritings and performances of oscar wilde in the fields of cinema music and literature by such artists as al pacino rupert everett stephen fry gyles brandreth david hare david bowie morrissey nick cave neil tennant gavin friday these artists through their awareness of the importance of being playing oscar in their specific worlds and cultural contexts will also show us that wilde can be conceived as a subversive critical role one might successfully perform and appropriate now more than ever
