seminar paper from the year 2010 in the subject business economics marketing corporate communication crm market research social media grade 1 7 akad university of applied sciences pinneberg course fgi 03 language english abstract today s business is based on the division of labor different people have to work together in order to create values and offer products or services but these people are individuals with different needs and wants different skills and abilities they have different social economical or cultural backgrounds as well as different working methods they have opposing interests and suffer from a lack of information about what others need and want therefore the division of labor requires a coordinating element a manager or a leader it is their task to coordinate all the individuals creating a unified direction of work by this all efforts can be focused on a common goal commonly the terms management and leadership are used synonymous with reference to the coordination function in business or administration this raises the question whether there is a difference between the two terms management and leadership and if so how this difference can be described and defined sometimes one can hear the saying that managers do the things right but leaders do the right things this adage states a significant difference between leadership and management however there is a heated debate about this topic the opinions differ widely about this topic this paper will discuss the terms management and leadership in a theoretical and practical way these two terms will be defined as well as differentiated from each other a special focus will be laid on the management functions and managerial roles and activities this will be discussed from a theoretical point of view in addition a practical example will clarify the theoretical angle essay from the year 2004 in the subject business economics business management corporate governance grade 1 glyndŵr university wrexham known as newi newi wales business school 14 entries in the bibliography language english abstract before discussing the concept of leadership and management within the manufacturing industry it s important to define clearly what does leadership and management mean because these two words are often used interchangeably most people think there exists no difference between a manager and a leader therefore they think that the person who seems to be the leader must be a manager or the other way round every manager must be a leader in this paper the differences of leadership and management is defined furthermore it discusses several management systems as well as several leadership models the difference between leadership and management is elaborated and discussed management can be seen as the formal structure of an organisation the main goal is to find a structure in which the people can work together very effective to increase productivity on the other hand leadership deals with people it tries to change the behaviour of the superior itself admit a better co operation between each employee therefore the communication and trust between superior and subordinate as well as the communication between subordinates becomes very important it can be also seen as the informal structure of an organisation who are the people who trust people and are willing to follow on few occasions in the history of modern management have leadership skills been in such sharp focus as they are now the ability to direct often very large and diverse organizations to make sense of the complex and turbulent markets and environments in which you operate and to adapt and learn seems at an all time premium the premise behind the fifth edition of this influential handbook is that leadership management and organizational development are all parts of the same process enhancing the capacity of organizations whatever their size and the people within them to achieve their purpose to this end the editors have brought together a who s who of current writers on leadership and development and created the definitive single volume guide to the subject the perspectives that the text provides to leadership learning and development embrace the formal and the informal cultures and case examples from organizations of all kinds and offers readers a rigorous readable and where appropriate ground breaking book in the 14 years since the fourth edition of this classic book very much has changed but the need for this handbook is as strong as ever and the fifth edition of gower handbook of leadership and management development is set to become a definitive read for senior managers and those who develop them and an essential reader for the management students aspiring to become the next generation of leaders effective leadership management is about theory and practice of integrating styles skills and character of today s chief executive officers it is about what a leader or a manager does to bring about staff efficiency and effectiveness a leader or a manager is effective when he or she brings about the desired results for the organization by using different approaches to the development of personal and interpersonal effectiveness of the staff by daily decision making staffing planning forecasting nurturing coaching directing organizing marketing encouraging and controlling quality effective leadership management emphasizes leadership as the intersection of character knowledge skill and desire management supervises tasks but leadership deals with people who supervise tasks in other words management is doing things right while leadership is doing the right things effective leadership management styles are achievable by using mixtures of different styles as situation arises each leader has to choose styles that suits his or her personality and that best represents the values of the organization in all a leader has to be transparent with all daily dealings communicates effectively be honest with staff members showing an unbending integrity at the same time be knowledgeable or skillful about the tasks at hand and be easy to follow when an employee is encouraged motivated and positively appraised his or her performance will be enhanced this book strongly emphasizes theory z by dr ouchi in which a management or leadership style focuses on a strong company philosophy a distinctive corporate culture long range staff development and consensus decision making when decisions and policies that relate to customers are being made by an organization it is important to understand that others such as customers community staff suppliers and stake holders opinions should be considered this is called a holistic view approach to decision making it is my hope that readers will find this book useful either as a church leader school principal or university president hospital or nursing home administrator nurse manager or departmental head company owners or ceo that an effective and efficient leader or manager cannot lead or manage alone by skills or knowledge but with styles character personality and by example
